

2007 Barbe Grant Recipients & Their Projects

Denise Antram
2nd Grade Classroom Teacher
Southeastern Elementary School
Bellefontaine City Schools

Purchase of Accelerated Reading quizzes to continue to motivate students to read and be assessed on books that match their reading and interest level.

Carol Sears
7th Grade Language Arts Teacher
Bellbrook Middle School
Sugarcreek Local Schools

Purchase of picture books with good models of writing, literary elements and/or important middle school themes.

Kathleen A. Gordon
McVay Elementary School
Westerville City School

Purchase of Big Books for Multiple Handicapped students. Adapting instruction with Big Books for Acquisition of Vocabulary (Ohio Academic Content Standards) and addressing each child's Individual Education Plan.

Susan Seela
Gifted Intervention Specialist K-3
Stephen Bell Elementary
Sugarcreek Local Schools

Purchase 3 sets of Alphabetters, Alphabetically Organized Thinking Adventures by Dr. Bertie Kingore and corresponding alphabet books. These will assist in engaging students' thinking and creativity as they complete learning experiences organized around the alphabet.

Intervention Specialists:
Gail Clark (Gr. 5/6); Colette Goddard (Gr. 5/6);
SuEllen Henry (Gr. 5); Laura Burgoon (Gr. 5);
Toni Davis (Gr. 5); Leslie Henderson (Gr. 6);
Mary Hudson (Gr. 6); and Heather Miller (Gr. 6)
Harmon Middle School
Pickerington Local Schools

Adding of Essential Skills Grade 4 Reading Comprehension and Grade 4 Vocabulary to current programs. This will provide opportunities for a very diverse student population with 10 different spoken languages to master basic skills in English language arts.

