

From Former Clients

"How about two more sessions?"

"I found the role playing, strategies, and feedback most useful."

"Thank you for the conflict management and parent conferencing skills."

"The practical applications to my immediate situation are greatly appreciated."

"Role playing, journal entries and discussions all were great. I would like 4 more sessions and written feedback."

"Everything was helpful. Dealing with Board Members very helpful."

"Dr. Stephens is a professional who has tremendous insight to understanding the needs of those in educational leadership."

Buckeye Association of School Administrators and
The School Study Council of Ohio

INTERPERSONAL COACHING FOR EMERGING AND BEGINNING SCHOOL LEADERS

www.scco.org

Eligible Clients

- All School Superintendents and Building Administrators
- Preference for those in first and second years of new assignments
- Who have demonstrated knowledge of the content in their position and/or currently enrolled in a leadership academy
- Limited to 30 clients/year
- Emerging leaders as designated by their superintendents
- Experienced leaders who desire short term coaching for specific challenges

Coaching

- Basic three 2 hour meetings across school year
- Exchange between client and coach to determine client's preferences and needs
- Demonstrations, role playing, behavior rehearsals, and discussions
- Coaching includes specific ways to initiate, respond, and change behaviors and perceptions of self and/or others
- All behaviors, strategies and tactics are presented as lessons to master with functional practice and assignments
- Follow up as needed

Visit the website at:
www.ssko.org/ssco/interpersonal%20coaching.html

Confidential

Non Profit Since 1965
www.ssko.org

A PERSONNEL SERVICE
FOR SCHOOL LEADERS
WHO WANT TO INCREASE
INTERPERSONAL SKILLS AND BEHAVIOR FOR MANAGING
SELF AND OTHERS MORE EFFECTIVELY

All work is personalized and done by a licensed psychologist and is confidential

For further information, contact:

Dr. Thomas M. Stephens

(614) 785-0481

Fax: (614) 785-0513

Email: tstephens@ssco.org